

Forest - Our Lifeline Worksheet

1. Forest has both _____ and _____ factors.
2. Examples of biotic factors are _____.
3. Examples of non biotic factors are _____.
4. Forest comes from the latin word _____ which means _____.
5. Name some types of forest.
6. The main product of the forest is _____.
7. Name 2 trees which give timber _____.
8. Paper is manufactured from _____.
9. The main ingredient of paper is _____.
10. Resin is used to make _____.
11. Latex is used to make _____.
12. _____ is used to make paint.
13. _____ is used to make rubber .
14. Due to deforestation _____ increases in the atmosphere.
15. _____ is used in the treatment of malaria.
16. _____ is obtained from coconut.
17. Coir is obtained from _____.
18. Dense branches of tall trees that make the forest dark are called _____.
19. Forests are also called _____.
20. Microorganisms convert dead plants and animals to _____.
21. The organisms which help in maintaining the supply of nutrients to the plants are known as _____.
22. A _____ represents the feeding relationship among different organisms in the environment.
23. Number of food chains that exist together is called _____.
24. The mass scale falling of trees is known as _____.
25. _____ is a natural farm management system that along with agriculture and integration of trees on farms .
26. _____ involves the planting of trees in and around agricultural fields , along railway lines, roadsides etc.
27. _____ is a branch of tree that appears like a roof over the other plants.
28. _____ represents the relationship between eaten or being eaten.
29. _____ are the most characteristic component of a forest.
30. Falling of trees on a large scale is called _____.
31. Planting trees on a large scale is called _____.
32. Forest covers _____ land surface of earth.
33. Canopy makes the forest _____.

